KOROVET

A natural herbal concentrate acting on the organs and tissues of the Fire element in the Five Element Regeneration® concept. It harmonises the heart, pericardium, small intestine and blood vessels. Overall, it improves the transport functions in the animal's body, at the organ, cellular and biochemical levels. It improves the blood supply to the tissues. It stimulates the spleen, pancreas, stomach and nervous system (Earth element). It inhibits hyperactivity of the liver, gallbladder and connective tissue (Wood element).

Recommendation from a veterinarian

I use Korovet primarily to treat the majority of epileptiform and/or convulsive conditions without the need for additional medication. The advantage is its temporary use. When used in elderly animals, it, among other things, increases vitality and enjoyment of life.
